

Dear Classical Music Enthusiasts,

Chamber Music Abu Dhabi's mission is to build a vibrant classical music scene in Abu Dhabi. Our concerts feature some of the world's most exciting young performers in innovative programs and in intimate settings. Through collaboration with local artists and in close cooperation with music educators, we are shaping the next generation of performers right here in Abu Dhabi.

When you join us in sponsoring these exceptional artists, you have the opportunity to forge relationships with emerging stars, and to become a distinguished patron of the fine arts. We invite you to help us establish an enduring tradition of great classical music in Abu Dhabi.

Thank you for your support and enjoy our 2018 season!

What's ahead for 2018

Maturity and Mastery
Spring Quartet Residency featuring
The Attacca Quartet

Amy Schroeder and Keiko Tokunaga, Violin
Nathan Schram, Viola / Andrew Yee, Cello

The internationally acclaimed Attacca Quartet is one of the most dynamic ensembles of their generation. Praised by The Strad for possessing “maturity beyond its members’ years,” they made their professional debut in 2007 as part of the Artists International Winners Series in Carnegie Hall’s Weill Recital Hall. For the 2014-2015 season they were selected as the Quartet in Residence by the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. The group currently serves as the Ensemble-in-Residence at the School of Music at Texas State University.

The Attacca Quartet’s most recent album release included string quartet works of Michael Ippolito. The group’s next recording project will feature string quartet works of Caroline Shaw.

The Attacca Quartet has engaged in extensive educational and community outreach projects. Since 2006, they have performed in yearly benefit concerts supporting the Parkinson’s Disease Foundation’s efforts. The members of the Attacca Quartet currently reside in New York City. They are represented by Baker Artists, LLC.
